

Mr. Madison's War

President: _____	From: _____
Vice-Pres: _____	Party: _____
Occupation: _____	Term: _____

Causes of the War of 1812

British Impressment: Great Britain began a policy of _____, kidnapping American sailors and forcing them to serve on British ships.

Attack on the Chesapeake: British warship, the _____, attacked the American vessel killing three Americans and wounding many others. Outraged Americans began _____.

Frontier Conflicts with Natives: American settlers continued to fight with Native American tribes in the West. Powerful Shawnee, led by _____, led Indian resistance to western settlement. After the Battle of Tippecanoe, British _____ were discovered on the battlefield causing Americans to become suspicious that British involvement was _____ on Western settlements.

"War Hawks": Young Republican-Democratic congressman from the South and West who aggressively advocated for the President to _____. Led by Henry Clay (Kentucky) and John C. Calhoun (South Carolina), these advocates for war saw war with Britain as an opportunity to claim lands in southern Canada.

Declaration of War: On June 1, 1812, President James Madison became the first President to seek a _____ from Congress.

VIDEO: America's Second War of Independence, by Parger U

1. The British Navy forced over _____ sailors to serve on British ships.
2. In June, 1814, the United States Congress declared _____.
3. The prize Britain wanted was the city at the Mississippi River known as _____.
4. British forces had over _____ men. But the Americans has _____.
5. According to one British Captain, the total losses of the British officers and soldiers at the Battle of New Orleans was about _____.
6. The War of 1812 made Andrew Jackson a national _____.

Mr. Madison's War

EVENTS OF THE WAR

Burning of the Capital

-
-

Battle of Fort McHenry

-
-

Treaty of Ghent

-
-

Battle of New Orleans

-
-

ESP Results of the War

ECONOMIC

The war spurred economic growth in America.

Moved America toward an industrial economy.

SOCIAL

"Era of Good Feelings" occurred as Americans experienced a period of unity and nationalism.

POLITICAL

The Federalist Party was severely damaged and ceased to exist as a national political party.